Kerry Properties' First Sustainability Report Won the Asia Sustainability Reporting Awards

(Hong Kong, 8 February 2018) The inaugural Sustainability Report 2016 issued by Kerry Properties Limited (“Kerry Properties”) was awarded the “Asia’s Best First Time Sustainability Report” in Asia Sustainability Reporting Awards 2017.

The Asia Sustainability Reporting Awards was organised by CSRWorks International Pte Ltd, a leading provider of corporate social responsibility services in Singapore. The awards recognise and honour sustainability reporting leaders in Asia, and celebrate best practices in sustainability reporting and communications. Competition was tough as there are many listed companies in Asia and large-scale multinational conglomerates competing in the awards each year.

The award ceremony was held in Singapore in the evening on 6 February to unveil the winners of each category. The accolade justifies Kerry Properties’ first Sustainability Report have demonstrated a promising start by producing a well-round report focused on material topics and stakeholder engagement.

Kerry Properties’ Sustainability Report 2016 defines and announces the Group’s sustainability roadmap. The report was prepared in compliance with the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong’s Environmental, Social and Governance Reporting Guide. The report discloses the Group’s sustainability performances in terms of environmental protection, responsible operation, staff caring and community investment. This helps the general public and stakeholders of the Group to have better understanding to Kerry Properties’ effort spent in these sustainability related issues.

It is a huge encouragement to the Group for being awarded. This award reflects the effectiveness of Kerry Properties' Sustainability Report in communicating their commitment and efforts to the public, and will drive the Group to seek further enhancement in sustainability development.
